

A lecture programme was organised on 27th September 2023 on the topic “Agriculture and allied activities: An avenue for Entrepreneurship Development” by the Department of Economics, Bimala Prasad Chaliha College in association with the Department of Commerce. The invited resource person was Dr. Hiranya Kumar Bhattacharyya, Chief Scientist, Zonal Livestock Research Station, Assam Agricultural University, Mandira. The programme was chaired by Dr. Alaka Hujuri, Head of the Department of Economics. The programme started with felicitation of the dignitaries present on the dais. Mr. Birendra Kumar Borah, Associated Professor, department of Physics and Principal in-charge of the aforesaid day welcomed the august gathering with a heartwarming speech anticipating success of the programme. Mr. Arun Kumar Sarkar, Co-ordinator, IQAC also delivered a warm speech quoting that there is no short cut to success except hard work. Thereafter the lecture programme was started by the invited speaker. The speaker enthralled the audiences with his enlightening speech on the topic. The session was an incredibly insightful and inspiring. Throughout the presentation, the speaker demonstrated a remarkable command of the subject matter, illustrating how agriculture when coupled with innovative ideas and a strategic approach can indeed serve as a potent avenue for entrepreneurship. He also provided the aspirants with a profound insight into the challenges and opportunities in this sector, empowering them with the information need to embark on entrepreneurial journeys. He not only enlightened the audiences with his extensive knowledge but also ignited a spark of motivation and passion for entrepreneurship in the field of agriculture and allied activities.

On completion of the lecture, students were asked to raise their questions. The questions of the students were answered by the speaker sharing his personal experiences making the programme more effective and practical. Dr. Alaka Hujuri delivered chairperson’s speech. Lastly, Minakshi Baro offered her vote of thanks to all present in the meeting for making it a grand success.

