A departmental seminar on 'Fairs of Uqaz: Its contribution to growth and development of pre-Islamic poetry' was held on 07-11-2018 at the B.P. Chaliha College, Nagarkheda under the auspices of department of Arabic of the college.

Korban Ali Ahmed, Associate Professor and HOD, of Arabic conducted the seminar while Abdus Salam, Associate Professor of the college attended the seminar.

as the Resource person. Prof. Salam on his speech in the topic described the importance and significance of 'Fair of Ukaz' towards the development of pre-Islamic Arabic Poetry. He said, with different quotation of the poets, that the pre-Islamic period was the age of poetry literature in fact. But the Fair of Ukaz is undoubtedly a historic event in the world of Arabic literature. This fair of literary activities is said to be the foundation of Arabic poetry literature and also the source of exchange of commodities among the people of the Arabian Country in the days of pre-Islamic period.

He also said that 'Fair of Ukaz' was the source of inspiration of the poets of pre-Islamic period. At the end of the seminar the chair person delivered his speech and offered thanks to the participants and also other faculty members of the college and with this he concluded the seminar.
