

Awareness Programme on “Jobs for All”

The Department of Economics, B.P. Chaliha College, Nagarbera, successfully organized an awareness programme titled “Jobs for All” on 22nd November 2024. The event was held in the college seminar hall and witnessed active participation from students.

The programme was inaugurated by the Head of the department, Firoza Ahmed who highlighted the significance of addressing unemployment and empowering the youth with knowledge about job opportunities. The primary objective of the event was to educate and inspire students about the diverse employment opportunities available across various sectors, along with strategies for enhancing employability.

The keynote address was delivered by Mr. Rahinur Mandal, the resource person for the event. Mr. Mandal, an expert in career counselling and employment generation strategies, spoke extensively on the current job market trends, skill requirements, and the importance of continuous learning.

The programme received overwhelming appreciation from the participants, who expressed gratitude for the practical knowledge and motivation imparted. The Head of the Department of Economics, in the vote of thanks, commended Mr. Rahinur Mandal for his enlightening session and acknowledged the efforts of the organizing team for the successful execution of the event.

The “Jobs for All” awareness programme not only informed the attendees about various employment opportunities but also instilled a sense of confidence and determination to excel in their respective career paths.

The Department of Economics looks forward to organizing more such impactful events in the future.
