

Lecture Programme Organized on the Occasion of International Mother Language Day, 2026

The Department of Assamese, B.P. Chaliha College, Nagarbera organized an online lecture programme on 21 February 2026 on the occasion of International Mother Language Day. The programme was conducted through online mode to commemorate the significance of linguistic diversity and the importance of preserving mother languages.

The invited resource person for the programme was Prof. Kushumbar Borua, Professor, Department of Assamese, Assam University, Diphu Campus. He delivered an insightful lecture on the topic “Unsung Narratives and Characters of Indian Freedom Movement in Assamese Literature.” In his lecture, he highlighted the lesser-known narratives and overlooked characters associated with the Indian freedom movement as reflected in Assamese literary texts. The session enriched the participants’ understanding of the contribution of Assamese literature to the representation of freedom struggle narratives.

The programme witnessed active participation from students and faculty members. Approximately 55 participants joined the online meeting. The session concluded with an interactive discussion and a vote of thanks, making the programme informative and meaningful in observance of International Mother Language Day.
