

Inauguration of the Departmental Wall Magazine 'Dristi'

The Department of Assamese, B.P. Chaliha College, Nagarbera, inaugurated its yearly departmental wall magazine 'Dristi' on 09 February 2026 with great enthusiasm and academic spirit. The programme was organized by the department to encourage literary creativity and cultural awareness among students.

The wall magazine was formally inaugurated by Bidyut Dutta, Head of the Department of Assamese. Speaking on the occasion, he appreciated the efforts of the students and emphasized the importance of literary and cultural activities in academic life.

The magazine was edited by Deepamoni Saha, while Dipanjali Talukdar served as the Sub-editor. The theme of this year's edition was the Assamese Bihu festival, reflecting the rich cultural heritage and traditions of Assam. Various writings and creative contributions related to Bihu were included in the magazine, showcasing students' interest and understanding of Assamese culture.

The programme concluded successfully with active participation from students and teachers of the department. The inauguration of 'Dristi' marked an important occasion in promoting literary expression and cultural consciousness among the students.

Bidyut Dutta, HOD

Department of Assamese, B. P. Chaliha College, Nagarbera