

Participation in Rally Competition during College Week, 2026

The students of the Department of Assamese, B.P. Chaliha College actively participated in the Rally Competition organised as a part of College Week 2026 on 9 February 2026. The rally competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from various departments of the college.

The theme of the rally presented by the Department of Assamese was “Renowned Artists of Modern Assamese Song.” Through the rally, the students beautifully showcased the contributions of eminent artists of modern Assamese music and highlighted the richness of Assamese cultural heritage. The participants carried placards, dressed creatively, and displayed portraits representing famous Assamese singers and musicians, creating awareness among the audience about the significance of Assamese musical traditions.

The rally was appreciated for its informative presentation, creativity, and cultural relevance. The participation of the students reflected their dedication, teamwork, and deep respect for Assamese art and culture. The programme added colour and enthusiasm to the celebration of College Week 2026
