

Field trip to MWANABILI, Kokrajhar
Department of Political Science
Date: 05/01/2022

The most awaited day of the year was the departmental field trip to MWANABILI, Kokrajhar, Assam. Mwnabili picnic spot gave greenery and the beauty of nature. We started at 5AM in the morning with prayer and a feeling of a great day ahead. The student were extremely excited and kept singing songs in the bus till they reached the venue.

Mwnabili Picnic spot & Eco Tourism situated at Sadu Mara of Malivita touching the Bhutan Border under Chirang District, BTR, Assam. It is a beautiful place to visit and people throng here for picnic and enjoy at natural beautiful river with cold and clean water.

45 students along with 4 teachers were the part of this wonderful picnic cum field visit. It exudes bursts of magic throughout the day. The students were amazed to see the beauty of nature of the venue.

