

FINANCIAL AWARENESS TRAINING PROGRAMME

Date: 24/09/2026 (11 AM)

Mode: Online

A Financial Awareness Programme was organised by the IQAC of B.P. Chaliha College, Nagarbera, Kamrup on Date 24th September 2026 at 11AM through virtual/online mode. The programme was organised in association with Excellence Global Skill, Corporate Training and Development Organization, Nagpur, Maharashtra. About 200 students and few respected faculty members were gathered in the seminar hall as well as the digital hall to join in the pre-scheduled programme.

Primary objective of the programme was to promote financial literacy and develop an understanding of financial planning, money management, savings, and responsible financial decision-making. The resource person highlighted the importance of financial awareness in everyday life and emphasized the need for effective management of financial resources.

All participants actively engaged in the session and showed keen interest in understanding various aspects of financial management. The programme was conducted with the support and guidance of Dr. Kamal Chandra Pathak, Principal; Dr. Trailokya Deka, IQAC Coordinator, and Dr. Pinki Barman, Assistant Professor, along with the organising team.

The programme was informative and contributed to the development of financial awareness and responsible financial practices among the participants. College expressed its sincere appreciation to Excellence Global Skill for organizing this valuable educational initiative.
